WILD NIGHTS IN SELOUS

5 days, 4 nights

Fly Camping

Fly camps are always temporary, set up as requested in remote corners of the park. Ideal for two to six guests, the emphasis is on walking and tracking animals through forests, open areas and along the sandy shores of meandering rivers. It is a magical experience but not for everyone, as tents are simple though comfortable and animals wander around camp at night. There are hot bucket-showers and toilet facilities are 'long-drop' style. With all its bush charm, most people find fly camping a very enriching experience.

Highland Fishing Lodge

Exciting Addition

Highland Fishing Lodge

Cool healthy mountain air, evenings around a log fire, trout fishing, horse riding and stunning scenery are just a few of the reasons for visiting the Highland Fishing Lodge high up on the Rift Valley escarpment and discovering a different aspect of the African bush.

You can add a stay at Highland Fishing Lodge between days 04 and 05.

Bush Extension

Katavi Wilderness Camp

Katavi is truly off the beaten path, offering a full range of wildlife including the elusive Sable and Roan antelopes. The park also features Tanzania's densest concentrations of hippopotami and crocodiles.

Guests of the camp are extended outstanding service in a remote and intimate setting. The camp is accessible by scheduled flights on Mondays and Thursdays from Ruaha. Return flights are also on Mondays and Thursdays so a three to four night stay is recommended.

Beach Extension

Lazy Lagoon

The Tanzanian coastline has some of the most pristine beaches found on the globe. Lazy Lagoon sits on a small private island just north of Dar es Salaam and can be reached by air or road and boat transfer from Dar es Salaam.

Saadani National Park

Tanzania's most recently gazetted national park, Saadani is the only one in East Africa with ocean frontage and therefore the only place that can genuinely lay claim to offering beautiful beaches and safari in a single location. Geographically it is the closest National Park to both Dar es Salaam and Zanzibar. As it is a coastal park it is the only place one can see wildlife and bird life interacting on the coast. There are at least 24 species of large mammals found here and the beach areas are breeding grounds for the green turtle.

Bush Facts

Many of Africa's great explorers of the 1800's such as Stanley, Burton and Speke used Bagamoyo as the staging grounds for their expeditions through northern and western Tanzania. They arrived by ship to Zanzibar and sailed by small boats to the mainland at Bagamoyo with the goods needed for survival and trading.

UNDER THE STARS IN SOUTHERN TANZANIA

8 days, 7 nights

An exceptional way to experience not only the wildlife of these untamed parks but also pass through true rural Africa. You travel with your camp crew who make camp at each stop. Whilst your bush chef prepares your meals and you experience a closeness with nature that cannot be experienced in luxury tented camps.

Tents, though basic are comfortable. A camp hand sets camp for you and a bush chef prepares great meals throughout the safari. Fresh fruit as a breakfast starter as your eggs are prepared to order.

Beach Extension

Camping on South Dar es Salaam Beach

One of the exciting things about Tanzania is that each region boasts unique and thrilling features. In Western Tanzania, the shores of Lake Tanganyika give way to mountains with lush forest. Here, one of man's closest relatives, the chimpanzee, thrives. The long flights between Arusha and the western parks are well worth the rewards of experience.
